HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF:

1. Don't accept drinks that you did not open yourself.
2. Don't exchange or share drinks with anyone.
3. Don't drink anything out of a punch bowl.
4. Monitor the behaviour of friends who seem more intoxicated than the amount of alcohol would warrant.
5. Never consume a drink that you have not mixed yourself, or have not watched someone else prepare.
6. Never accept a drink from someone you don't know and trust.
7. If you hear someone "kidding" about date rape drugs, pay attention. That should be a warning to leave that party or individual.

Date-rape drugs have become a violent weapon used to victimize women

Fighting date-rape drugs

Canadian Alliance MP, James Moore, is working to make the government classify date-rape drugs like GHB and Rohypnol as weapons under the criminal code. This would mean more serious charges for people who use them to attack women. James Moore has introduced a motion in the House of Commons to classify these dangerous drugs as weapons.

"Action on date-rape drugs has been long overdue by the federal government. Date-rape drugs shouldn't be treated the same way in the criminal code as heroin or cocaine because they are used to victimize people, involuntarily. For too long nothing has been done to combat date-rape drugs. I hope that my motion wakes up the federal government to act aggressively against the cowardly criminals who use these drugs," said Moore.
