Instructions for Sending Your Application Form

Instructions:

- Sign and date the declaration in box 12.
- Sign and date the appropriate field in box 13 if it applies.
- With your registration form, provide a photocopy of proof of identity and address of ordinary residence (this must be the same as the address you entered in box 9):
 - one document showing the name, current address of ordinary residence and signature of the elector, i.e. a driver's licence (both sides if it applies)
 - or two documents:
 - one showing the name and signature of the elector, i.e. a library card, or a health card or a Canadian passport, and
 - one showing the name and current ordinary residence of the elector, i.e. a utility or tax bill
 - or an affidavit signed before a person authorized to receive oaths in the province or territory and showing the name, current address of ordinary residence and signature of the elector
 - or a document showing the name and current address of ordinary residence of the elector's spouse or the person on whom the elector is dependent. Both the elector to be registered and the person whose name appears on the document must be present at the time it is offered, and they must reside together.

Please ensure all documents are clear and legible. Photocopy or scan documents lighter than usual and enlarge them.

Note: If you bring your application in person to your local Elections Canada office, you will be asked to show proof of identity and address of ordinary residence. In this instance, there is no need to make copies of your supporting documents.

Failure to provide all the required information on the application or proof of identity and address of ordinary residence will cause unnecessary delays that may result in missed deadlines.

Return your application for registration and special ballot, along with the supporting documents to the Elections Canada office for your electoral district no later than 6:00 p.m. on October 7, 2008.

The completed ballot must arrive at the office of the returning officer for your electoral district before the close of the polls in your electoral district on October 14, 2008. By law, late ballots cannot be counted.
